NAME(S) OF PERSON(S) WHO PREPARED
THIS FORM

PRIVATE POLICY NOTICE

Pursuant to the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, Public Law Number 106-102, and the rule issued by the Federal Trade Commission regarding the Privacy of Consumer Financial Information, 16 Code of Federal Regulations, Part 313, law firms which provide tax preparation and tax planning services to their clients are categorized as financial service providers and are required to provide written notice to certain clients regarding disclosure of non-public personal information.

Information We Collect

As attorneys, we may collect certain non-public personal information about our clients from our clients, with their authorization, from third parties such as accountants, financial advisors, insurance agents, financial institutions and other advisors.

Parties to Whom We Disclose Information

We do not disclose any non-public personal information about our clients or former clients to anyone, except as required by law, or as authorized by that client.

Confidentiality and Security of Your Personal Information

Except as otherwise stated in this notice, we restrict access to non-public personal information about our clients to those attorneys and other employees of our firm who must use that information for our firm to provide services to you. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards designed to comply with applicable laws and regulations and our rules of ethics to guard your personal information from unauthorized access or alteration.

The above referenced federal laws and regulations establish rules and disclosure requirements and do not limit the attorney-client privilege or confidentiality rules for information provided to attorneys. The privilege and confidentiality rules are governed by applicable state law, the rules imposed on attorneys under state law and our ethical standards. In circumstances where applicable federal law might allow disclosure, we will continue to follow any stricter non-disclosure rules of attorney-client privilege and client confidentiality.
