WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THIS FORM?

The information you provide in this form and the documents you provide in accordance with the attached checklist are to help you organize the decedent's personal and financial affairs so that we have enough information to determine the type of administration needed and whether probate and/or tax filings are required. As noted in the form below, several sections of this form need not be completed if Legacy Law Group prepared the decedent's estate planning documents, as we should already have the relevant information.

WHO SHOULD COMPLETE THIS FORM?

Typically, the person completing this form (or on whose behalf it is completed) is a named fiduciary of an estate (the term "estate," as used herein, refers to a probate estate and/or a trust estate), i.e., either the named executor of a probate estate under a Last Will and Testament and/or the named successor trustee of a trust estate. Alternatively, if there is no will or trust, this form is typically completed by an adult relative or some other person who has an interest in the estate.

WHO IS TO BE THE CLIENT?

Typically, this firm is hired to advise and represent the fiduciary of an estate in his or her fiduciary capacity. This means that our legal efforts will be focused on advising and assisting the fiduciary to properly and legally carry out his or her fiduciary duties to the estate as a whole. Quite often the fiduciary is also a beneficiary of the estate, and may desire legal advice and representation as an individual beneficiary. We are happy to provide this service; however, if we advise and/or represent you as an individual beneficiary, we cannot also represent you in your role as fiduciary because this almost invariably gives rise to a conflict of interest. The only exception to this is if you are the sole legal and natural beneficiary of the estate, in which event there would be no conflict. So that everyone is clear as to what type of advice and/or representation this firm will be providing, we request that you consider and decide this issue in advance and place your initials below next to the type of representation you desire.

- I/We desire representation in my/our fiduciary capacity and not as an individual beneficiary(ies).
- I/We desire representation as individual(s) and not in my/our fiduciary capacity.
- I am/We are the sole beneficiary(ies) of the estate and therefore desire representation in a fiduciary capacity and not as an individual(s).
